

SCAW ADVANCED IACUC WORKSHOP IN BALTIMORE, MARCH 2004

RELEASE DATE: January 30, 2004

NOTICE: NOT-OD-04-022

National Institutes of Health (NIH)

The NIH Office of Laboratory Animal Welfare will join the Scientists Center for Animal Welfare and the Johns Hopkins University (JHU) in co-sponsoring an advanced training course for members of Institutional Animal Care and Use Committees on March 5, 2004. It will be held at the Turner Building, JHU East Campus. The meeting will focus on complex topics arising about the welfare of animals in research. The program will include small discussion groups and sharing of information among the participants concerning issues and controversies involving compliance with Federal laws and regulations in research activities involving animals.

The program and registration information are posted at <http://www.scaw.com/iacuc-advanced.htm>.
